REACH OG Learning Center is pleased to welcome Holistic Nutritionists Linda Carr and Catharine Wright from IDEAL NUTRITION and Christopher Gehry, Homeopath from CAPILANO HOMEOPATHY.

How Natural Health Approaches Can Improve A Child's Behavior and Performance

Tuesday, Feb. 2nd, 2010
7:30pm

Join Linda, Catherine and Christopher as they discuss nutrition as an alternative choice to medication, using proper food choices, supplements and nutrition to enhance children's well being and homeopathy as an individualized wellness program that has been proven very effective for the treatment of ADD and ADHD.

There is no fee for parents to attend, but prior registration is required. Call the center at 604.987.6760 to reserve your seat or sign up on the registration page in the center.

REACH O-G Learning Center is dedicated to quality tutoring and to parent education. We offer free parent enrichment sessions and a parent library of resources about learning difficulties, literacy, current research and other issues related to learning difficulties.
